THE COUNTY FAIR.

Carson City expects to have a big fair this week. The District Fair here is always a grand success, and attracts a big crowd. All who attend think it a pleasanter fair than the one at Reno. The accommodations and location are better and the track faster.

All the crack racers will be here, the big crowd and the heavy betting. The Pavilion exhibit will be something worth coming a long way to see.

THE SILVER PARTY.

In a double headed editorial the Austin Reville says:

Monday last was an eventful day for the people of Lander county, for it heard the dead knell rung of Republicanism and Democracy and the joyous cries of the new born babe, the Silver Party of Lander. Succeeding the actions of the respective Central Committee; one in revoking its call for a convention, and the other in refusing to hold any, the two met, resolved themselves into an executive committee and formed the third party.

In doing so they gratified the general demand. Silver with us is first last and all the time, and all other things of County or State consideration must be subservient to the welfare of it. Actuated by these thoughts and instigated with like sentiments, the members of the committee acted so that nothing could be in the way of a free and united vote, expressive of the demand for the remonetization of the metal. Their action removes all obstacles and gives the means of proving the silver or anti-silver sentiments of every voter in the country.

We do not think and never have believed that a score of men could be found within the boundaries of old Lander who would support any other candidate for President than James B. Weaver, but were there more than that, who through party affiliation or bias, would sacrifice their interests to gratify their prejudices, they are now enabled to do something for themselves and their country by imitating the stand taken by the old parties who gave up everything in order to secure the happiness and prosperity of our home. A vote for Weaver means a vote for silver and a vote in that direction is a long pull and a hard pull to bring it back to the neck of equality—1.29 per ounce. It means even more than this. It means that when silver takes its stand again as the money of the world that our deserted towns and abandoned mines will become again the thriving mart and the bee hive of industry; that population will double, wages be increased, employment plentiful, new enterprises originated and a bright and prosperous reign of plenty and contentment be inaugurated.

The gold bugs of the East say that all they want to do to settle the silver question forever is to knock old Bill Stewart out of the Senate. They give him the credit of stirring up all the agitation on the silver question, and if they can knock him out of the ring they claim they can fix the silver question to suit themselves; and that won't be in a way to satisfy the silver producers, either. Shall we let them do it?—Lyon County Times.

Carson Day at Reno.

Carson was depopulated Friday, and the town attended the Reno Fair in a body.

The weather was very fair, though a little windy in the afternoon, and the Carson people had a good day of sport.

Reno intends to reciprocate next week and will send over a big delegation of visitors to our District Fair.
